Jay Bell Fund for Gay Mormon Studies Created in honor of Jay Bell following his untimely death, this fund supports scholarly research and writing necessary to counter anti-gay bigotry and ignorance, and to preserve GLBT Mormon history. Read more at http://www.affirmation.org/jaybellfund
Endowment Fund In this fund, money is invested and only the interest or return on investment is spent on projects. The goal is to build enough principal to have a significant, steady source of income
Conference Fund Funds donated here are spent only on Conference related expenses, for instance to bring speakers and entertainers to our Conferences, and to keep the conference registration cost within the reach of the greatest number of people.
Writing Awards Fund This fund provides for the monetary prizes awarded through the annual Affirmation Writing Awards and to cover costs of the contest or publishing writings. Read more at http://www.affirmation.org/writing_awards
Women's Retreat Fund This fund finances special events for women in Affirmation.
Advertising & Outreach Fund Created to provide funds to be used for paid advertising and the creation of media materials for spreading the message of Affirmation.
International Fund Funds to assist Affirmation chapters outside the United States. Uses include assisting leaders to travel to Affirmation events and to conduct operations within their own country.
General Operating Fund This is the most important fund of all—the one that pays the bills each month and allows Affirmation to have a website, telephone lines, office equipment and all the accoutrements needed to conduct daily operations. Any money not designated for other funds will be placed here.
Stephen Williams Film Project "Voicings" 'Voicings' portrays the results of sexual repression, depicting the double lives of men who are unable to express who they are in the light of day. It is an intimate look at Douglas, the central character, who yearns to become free from the prison created both by himself and his society/church. www.affirmation.org/voicings
